Dear Ed:

It has been a real pleasure working with Hollenbach Construction during our recently completed renovation/expansion project. All concerns or unexpected problems were handled in an efficient, professional manner by your entire staff.

A special thanks is in order to the job superintendent, Rich Longacre, who was always available to assist in answering questions and informing me of the day-to-day progress of the job. Pleasant, knowledgeable employees such as Rich and his crew are definitely an asset to your organization. I would not hesitate in considering your company for any forthcoming projects.

Sincerely,
